Karen Brockwell: How to Nail an Interview

Join the Women in Science and Engineering at UCSB in a lively discussion with Karen Brockwell to learn about her career, how to have a successful job interview and build a killer resume.

Date: Thursday, November 7th, 2013

Time: 10-11 am

Location: MRL 2053

Light Refreshments will be provided to those who RSVP!

RSVP to wisersvp@gmail.com

Speaker Bio: Karen Brockwell recently retired from Genentech, one of the world’s leading biotech companies, after 22 years of service with the company where she held positions as both Director of Technology and Senior Director of the new Cell Culture Manufacturing Facility. Prior to Genentech, Karen worked for a number of engineering contracting companies where she was involved with designing oil, gas and petrochemical facilities. Karen earned her Bachelor’s degree in Chemical Engineering at the University of Surrey in Guildford, England. Karen’s experience as one of few women in a senior management position in her field has motivated her to mentor young women in science and engineering. In recognition of her work, San Francisco Business Times honored Karen with the “Woman of Distinction” award in 2008.